

SAYS HE BEAT HER.

Millionaire Broker's Wife Brings Suit for Separation.

Mrs. Manning Temporarily Granted $3,600 a Year Alimony.

Her Husband Denies Charges and Blames Their Children.

Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, to-day awarded Mrs. Mary Manning $3,600 a year alimony and a counsel fee of $500 pending the decision of her suit for separation from John B. Manning. Manning is a well-known stock broker, and is said to be a millionaire. The Mannings were married in 1861 and have seven children.

They lived at 134 West Thirty-fourth street, and have a Summer home at Arverne. At the latter place and in 1892, Mrs. Manning says her husband began to treat her cruelly, alleging that he beat her nearly every day from June 23 to Sept. 3 of that year. On the latter date, she says, she suffered concussion of the brain and was under medical treatment for a long time.

When the family returned to this city Mrs. Manning alleges that her husband continued his cruel treatment, and that on Sept. 28 he threatened to kill her. Then, Mrs. Manning says, she left her husband and he followed her to several hotels and asked her.

Mrs. Manning says her husband owns the West Thirty-fourth street property, and that he is worth over $2,000,000. She says the New York house is not a fit residence for the daughters, as it is opposite Koster & Buell's.

It is also alleged by her that some time ago he tried to induce her to again live with him at the West Thirty-fourth street, between Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth streets, and not to cost less than $2,000, and to not only deed it to her, but to settle $10,000 a year to her as well. This she says, she afterward refused to do.

Mrs. Manning also alleges that her husband used vile language before her and her children, and that he accused her of improper conduct with men. At Arverne by the children in support of Mrs. Manning's charges are also submitted to the Court. In these Manning is referred to as "the Governor."

Manning's affidavit states that he lived happily with his wife for over thirty years, and that she is a woman of striking beauty, who is known to all the frequenters of upper Broadway, has commenced an action in the Superior Court for an absolute divorce from Isaac V. Streibig.

Mr. Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

Streibig is well known in theatrical circles as a manager. He was the manager of the "Nutmeg Match" company. About seven weeks ago Streibig, it is alleged, sent his wife to Boston for a short time, while he went to Cincinnati. A short time after his return, Streibig received a copy of a dramatic paper, in which appeared the following notice:

"The wedding of Isaac V. Streibig and Anna M. Streibig, on Sept. 7, was a happy affair."

LYLA KAVANAUGH IN COURT.

Dixey's Mountain Maid Has a Young Lawyer Punished.

Miss Lyla Kavanaugh, a handsome actress, formerly the Mountain Maid in Dixey's "Adonia," was complainant in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day against George B. Bryant, a young lawyer living at 16 East Seventeenth street.

Miss Kavanaugh charges that Bryant accosted her on Broadway yesterday afternoon. When she repelled him he became abusive, she says, and waved an umbrella over her head in a threatening manner.

In court to-day an elderly gentleman endeavored to have the charge withdrawn. He explained that Bryant came from a good family, and must have been out of his mind.

LYLA KAVANAUGH.

"That is no excuse," said Justice Voorhis. "I compliment you, madam, on having the courage to come forward to make this complaint." He then fined Bryant $10.

"I would like to apologize to the lady," said the prisoner.

The actress looked at the man for an instant, then turned away.

"No apology will do for me," she exclaimed. "I will instruct my lawyers to institute civil action against you at once."

Mrs. Kavanaugh sails on the Campania for Europe next Saturday to fill engagements in Berlin and Paris.

HUSBAND CUT OFF.

Peyton cannot have any of his late wife's $3,000,000 Estate.

The will of the late Josephine L. Peyton, who died Nov. 7, leaving an estate of $3,000,000, was filed for probate to-day.

It cuts off her husband without a penny. Originally a trust fund of $100,000 was created for him, but a codicil revoked this, and also revoked his appointment as executor for her daughter, Mabel R. Sherman.

In the codicil Mrs. Peyton says Mr. Peyton "did not act in a manner befitting a husband." The will is dated Feb. 9, 1888.

Mrs. Peyton leaves $12,500 to be divided among churches and societies, which she names. To her friend, Harriett L. Beck, $10,000 is left. The house at 360 West Nineteenth street, for life, is given to her.

The remainder of the estate is left in trust for the testatrix's daughter until the latter is twenty-five years of age, when she receives one-half. The other half is to be held in trust for her heirs.

Mrs. Sherman dies without heirs the money will go to charitable institutions.

A JEALOUS MADMAN.

Shot a Leading Citizen Who Visited His Sweetheart on Business.

LEBANON, Ind., Nov. 15.—Tuesday night Joseph Conrad shot and fatally wounded John Martz, one of the leading citizens of the county. Conrad, a widow, Martz had occasion to call on her several times during the past week on account of a real estate deal being made.

Conrad became insanely jealous, and meeting Martz on the street, shot him. He was arrested soon after and brought to Lebanon by a circuitous route to avoid a party of Martz's friends, who were waiting, prepared to lynch him.

The crowd finally returned to Zionville and notified Mrs. White, about whom some disagreeable stories have been told, to leave town within forty-eight hours, under penalty of being blown up by dynamite.

HAD TWO ALIASES.

Witnesses Accuse Dondoro in His Wife's Suit for Divorce.

The suit of Mrs. Maggie Dondoro, of 26 Cherry street, for an absolute divorce from her husband, Antonino Dondoro, was heard by Judge Freedman in the Superior Court to-day.

She charges that her husband deserted her to live with another woman named "Lizzie," and witnesses swore Dondoro had lived with a woman under the name of Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Le Baron.

The case was adjourned to allow the plaintiff's lawyer to introduce testimony concerning Dondoro's property.

Wentworth Loses Again.

Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, to-day refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to a man charged with reasonable doubt to William A. Wentworth, the convicted member of the Victoria Hotel, pending an appeal of his conviction for forgery.

Fell from a Window.

One Hundred and Twenty-first street, fell from the second-story window at that address to the street. The fall was caused by a defective window pane. She was taken to the Harlem Hospital.

"Buy of the Maker."

DECKER BUILDING, Union Square, W.

THE THUG WOMAN? WE ARE STILL AT IT.

Theory That a Female Hand Strangled the Denver Victim.

Detectives Following a Well-Known Real-Estate Dealer.

Footprints, However, Lead to a Suspicion of Jealous Revenge.

(Special to The Evening World.) DENVER, Nov. 15.—Behold the cloud of mystery enveloping the three murders of abandoned women in this city the detectives think that they see a deep and well laid scheme, on the part of the few men who by common interests have banded together to reduce to slavery the women of "the Row."

Chief Armstrong and his allies take a very practical view of the affair, and every effort is being made to work up legitimate evidence against the suspected persons. It is the opinion of many that "The Row" has seen its last struggling case—that the affair is now settled.

But there is another theory that has gained much headway, and which has been discussed at length. A detective told a friend that he had an inside "tip" on the affair, through a remark that a well-known real estate man made on the street.

"This real estate man," said the detective, "is undoubtedly the stranger, because his every action shows him one."

The man in question is one of the most prominent dealers in realty in the city, and it would be a strange and wonderful thing if it were not for the fact that he had a dual nature corresponding to that of Jekyll and Hyde.

The detective announced that he was going to follow up the real-estate man and catch him in the act of strangling one of these girls, if possible.

There is a theory also that a woman committed the last murder, and it has better foundation than most of the theories presented. A few minutes after the crime was discovered, several men walked through the rear of the building to the alley. The man leading the group was wide open, and by the dim light of the moon, foot prints were traced some distance.

These prints were small and about the size of a woman's small shoe. On the fresh snow in the middle of the alley these prints were exceedingly clear, but they were lost when dry ground was reached.

This theory is sustained by statements of the detectives, who say that they have evidence that a woman was seen entering and leaving the premises a few minutes before the murder.

Some of the detectives are of the opinion that the woman who was seen entering and leaving the premises was the same woman who was seen entering and leaving the premises.

It is impossible to say whether a man or a woman did the deed. Numerous plausible arguments are advanced, the effect of some depraved female is the strange, and instances where women have killed members of their own sex are cited to mind.

VICTIM OF A CHICAGO THUG.

Italian Dies from a Blow Struck on Election Day.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—An Italian life has been taken by slugs in the Twenty-third Senatorial District. John Pagliughi, an Italian, died in a tenement house, at 51 Michigan street, early this morning, as a result of injuries inflicted by a bullet fired from a revolver.

On being released she went to work as a domestic. Last July she worked for Mrs. Johnson, who then lived at 190 Willoughby street. Mrs. Johnson, a widow, was charged with having struck the blow. He is in jail.

DELAYED TOO LONG.

New Order Keeping Democrats Out of the Postal Service.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Many requests are received at the Post-Office Department from Postmasters all over the country asking that certain offices included in the recent civil-service order be excepted from its operations for a short time.

It appears, according to many of them, that the Postmaster appointed since the new Administration came into power had not yet had time to do his duty under the new party friends, and by the new extension they are debarred from the mail.

These letters have been very numerous, but to each the reply is made that the order will take effect when the time comes. Some of the requests ask when the order will take effect in the future was designated. It is now known, however, that the cabinet meeting, and that it was determined that the order went into effect the day the law was signed.

MADE PORT IN DISTRESS.

Leaky Bark Vega Arrives Here from Pensacola.

The Norwegian bark Vega, bound from Pensacola for Bilbao, Spain, put into this port this morning in distress, the vessel being leaky.

Capt. Haglund reported having sailed from Pensacola Oct. 17, six days later, when he was overtaken by a heavy sea and a gale. The vessel was driven into a lee, and the crew was forced to put into this port for repairs.

On reaching this port and learning that the necessary repairs could not be made, the crew decided to put into this port for repairs.

The vessel was driven into a lee, and the crew was forced to put into this port for repairs.

On reaching this port and learning that the necessary repairs could not be made, the crew decided to put into this port for repairs.

The vessel was driven into a lee, and the crew was forced to put into this port for repairs.

On reaching this port and learning that the necessary repairs could not be made, the crew decided to put into this port for repairs.

The vessel was driven into a lee, and the crew was forced to put into this port for repairs.

On reaching this port and learning that the necessary repairs could not be made, the crew decided to put into this port for repairs.

The vessel was driven into a lee, and the crew was forced to put into this port for repairs.

J. Lichtenstein & Sons

will offer for Friday and Saturday

450 Pairs

Children's Extra Fine

Fast Black Ribbed Cotton

Hosiery

Full regular made, double heels and toes, all sizes,

20c pair

Regular prices 30c & 50c

23d St. West.

Heretofore $10.50 to $15.00

Of Imported Boucle Cloth, trimmed with Fur, sizes 6 to 14 years

at $10.38

and $11.95

Heretofore $13.75 to $17.50

West 23d St.

BYCK BROS

CLOTHIERS.

160, 162 & 164 East 125th St.

136 William street, this morning and escaped without a broken bone. He complained, however, of pains in his abdomen, and may be injured internally.

MAY BANISH STREET BANDS.

A committee of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen to-day heard arguments for and against the abolishment of street bands. At the conclusion of the hearing it was decided to recommend to the full Board that the itinerant musicians be banished, and that the number of organ-grinders be reduced to 200 and licensed.

Canary & Lederer's Lawyer's Fee.

Application was made before Justice Gurney, in Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning, for the appointment of a referee to determine the amount due Lawyer Rosenberg for professional services rendered Canary & Lederer in suing to make Lillian Russell line up to her contract with them.

The lawyer asks $5,000, which Canary & Lederer claim is exorbitant.

Death of Miss Alice Welles.

Miss Alice Welles, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Police Commissioner Leonard H. Welles of Brooklyn, died at her parents' home, 211 states avenue, this morning. She had been ill for a year with throat trouble.

Three More Navarino Slaves Die.

(Special to The Evening World.) PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Nov. 15.—Three more of the AMBOY sufferers are dead. Dr. Ramak, health officer here, says that the remaining five patients are doing very well and are on their way to recovery.

Fell Six Stories and Lives.

Jacob Dannenfelser, nineteen years old, of 161 Dean street, Brooklyn, fell six stories through an elevator shaft at Telegram Received by Mariani & Co., Paris.

LIVADIA:

SEND IMMEDIATELY TO ANITCHKOFF PALACE ST PETERSBURG

ONE DOZEN BOTTLES VIN MARIANI

FOR HER IMPERIAL MAJESTY THE EMPRESS OF RUSSIA

FRANKLIN

Recommended everywhere by the Medical Profession during past 30 years. We hold over 7,000 written indorsements from leading physicians.

EVERY TRIAL OF VIN MARIANI PROVES ITS REPUTATION.

Ask for Vin Mariani at Druggists and Fancy Grocers. Accept no substitutes.

TO ALL WHO WRITE AND MENTION THIS PAPER

SENT FREE 75 PORTRAITS Of Celebrities

PARIS: 41 Boulevard Haussmann. LONDON: 239 Oxford St.

MARIANI & CO., 52 West 15th St., New York.

Stern Bros.

Friday

Special Sale

of Misses' and Children's

Cloaks

and Gretchens

of Beaver, Cheviots and Mixed Cloths,

Handsome trimmed, sizes 6 to 14 yrs

at $7.50

and $9.50

Heretofore $10.50 to $15.00

Of Imported Boucle Cloth, trimmed with Fur, sizes 6 to 14 years

at $10.38

and $11.95

Heretofore $13.75 to $17.50

West 23d St.

BYCK BROS

CLOTHIERS.

160, 162 & 164 East 125th St.

136 William street, this morning and escaped without a broken bone. He complained, however, of pains in his abdomen, and may be injured internally.

MAY BANISH STREET BANDS.

A committee of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen to-day heard arguments for and against the abolishment of street bands. At the conclusion of the hearing it was decided to recommend to the full Board that the itinerant musicians be banished, and that the number of organ-grinders be reduced to 200 and licensed.

Canary & Lederer's Lawyer's Fee.

Application was made before Justice Gurney, in Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning, for the appointment of a referee to determine the amount due Lawyer Rosenberg for professional services rendered Canary & Lederer in suing to make Lillian Russell line up to her contract with them.

The lawyer asks $5,000, which Canary & Lederer claim is exorbitant.

Death of Miss Alice Welles.

Miss Alice Welles, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Police Commissioner Leonard H. Welles of Brooklyn, died at her parents' home, 211 states avenue, this morning. She had been ill for a year with throat trouble.

Three More Navarino Slaves Die.

(Special to The Evening World.) PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Nov. 15.—Three more of the AMBOY sufferers are dead. Dr. Ramak, health officer here, says that the remaining five patients are doing very well and are on their way to recovery.

Fell Six Stories and Lives.

Jacob Dannenfelser, nineteen years old, of 161 Dean street, Brooklyn, fell six stories through an elevator shaft at Telegram Received by Mariani & Co., Paris.

LIVADIA:

SEND IMMEDIATELY TO ANITCHKOFF PALACE ST PETERSBURG

ONE DOZEN BOTTLES VIN MARIANI

FOR HER IMPERIAL MAJESTY THE EMPRESS OF RUSSIA

FRANKLIN

Recommended everywhere by the Medical Profession during past 30 years. We hold over 7,000 written indorsements from leading physicians.

EVERY TRIAL OF VIN MARIANI PROVES ITS REPUTATION.

Ask for Vin Mariani at Druggists and Fancy Grocers. Accept no substitutes.

TO ALL WHO WRITE AND MENTION THIS PAPER

SENT FREE 75 PORTRAITS Of Celebrities

PARIS: 41 Boulevard Haussmann. LONDON: 239 Oxford St.

MARIANI & CO., 52 West 15th St., New York.

Stern Bros.

Friday

Special Sale

of Misses' and Children's

Cloaks

and Gretchens

of Beaver, Cheviots and Mixed Cloths,

Handsome trimmed, sizes 6 to 14 yrs

at $7.50

and $9.50

Heretofore $10.50 to $15.00

Of Imported Boucle Cloth, trimmed with Fur, sizes 6 to 14 years

at $10.38

and $11.95

Heretofore $13.75 to $17.50

West 23d St.

BYCK BROS

CLOTHIERS.